Howard County Farmers' Market

Lora Satterfield

Hello to everyone! I am currently the owner/baker of "The Kitchen Table" at the Farmers' Market. The name I chose for my business originated from a little slogan I imagined when thinking about a name: "Let me help you bring your family back around the kitchen table." And that's what I hope you think about when you enjoy one of my bakery products. If we have any left-overs from Market day, I give them away to family and friends, or I freeze them for later.

I was born October 13, 1966, in Mississippi and moved to Arkansas when I was in the 9th grade. My previous employment was as an OB/GYN RN at Wadley Hospital in Texarkana for five years, then PharmacyTech at Nashville Drug for five years.

I met my husband, Steve, at church and we've been married for 32 years. He works for AEP SWEPCO. Steve was born April 14, 1966 and grew up in Texarkana, Arkansas. We have one son, Luke and a daughter, Hannah. Hannah is married to Joey Craigen and we have two grandbabies - Paizley and Shepherd. We moved to Nashville when Steve was transferred by his employer, Swepco. The rest of the family still live in Texarkana. We have been in Nashville for seven years. Having not grown up here, I didn't know many people. The Market has given me interaction with the friendly people of our great town.

I love to cook and bake and have been doing so as long as I can remember. All my baking is homemade from "scratch." A good friend suggested I rent a booth at the market. And now that I am retired, I decided to do just that. I bring lots of different baked goodies to the market - mostly family favorites - and try to have a variety each week, using locally grown fruits and veggies. My best sellers are Cinnamon Rolls & Fruit Sweet Rolls. If you would like to make a purchase, go to my Facebook page and call (870-703-9663) or send a message. And I would love to help anyone with any baking needs around the holidays.

We have just recently had a family health situation and I'm sorry I will probably not be coming to market again this summer. I thoroughly enjoyed selling at the market and getting to know so many new people and look forward to coming back next year.
