

HOWARD COUNTY FARMERS' MARKET

Friday October 5

7am – 11am or until sold out!

FRIDAY IN NASHVILLE

J & S Farms, Nashville – Okra and purple hull peas

Jordan Farm, Nashville – okra, Puerto Rican sweet potatoes and LuLu's Tea Cakes

Threat Farm, Nashville – farm-fresh eggs (ask for them - in market refrigerator!), a variety of hot peppers including & jalapeño, cayenne,
Anaheim, Carolina Reaper (hotter than ghost and habaneros!) and limited mixed cherry tomatoes

Drawing for free bag of vendor products . . . Enter the drawing each time you visit the market . . . Drawings are held each Friday and you need not be present to win!

SNAP Customers – Bring any gold and silver tokens you received earlier this year . . . Market vendors will continue to accept the tokens as long as produce and other food items are available at market :

Use your gold SNAP tokens for all food items - produce, eggs, honey and cottage foods - and your silver DUFEB tokens for any produce items!

Hospitality – Shirley

White Souder, Candidate for District 4 Justice of the Peace -

Stop by the hospitality table for a free cup of coffee . . . and greens, cornbread and pear strudel fresh from the kitchen! Then visit with Shirley about her candidacy for Justice of the Peace.

Shirley is a United Methodist Church Minister at Ebenezer Church and founded Voices of Faith Ministry. She is also a seamstress!